FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Camden County Recognizes Community for COVID-19 Response Healthcare Professionals, First Responders, and Essential Workers

WOODBINE, Ga. – June 5, 2020 – The Camden County Board of Commissioners signed a proclamation after their June 2, 2020, regular meeting teleconference to recognize the community response to COVID-19 by specifically honoring healthcare professionals, first responders, and essential workers.

“Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, local healthcare professionals, first responders, and essential workers have proven themselves to be excellent stewards of our community,” said County Administrator Steve Howard. “Although the pandemic has not ended, we wanted to take a moment to recognize the stellar commitment and sacrifice of these dedicated community partners.”

A copy of the proclamation will be provided to local health care professionals, first responders, and essential workers in the upcoming weeks.

About Camden County: Located in the extreme southeast corner of Georgia, Camden County truly is “Georgia’s Coastal Community of Choice.” Originally formed in 1777, Camden County is best known for its rich history, natural scenic beauty and Southern hospitality. Our vision is helping to make this the best place to live by preserving and enhancing the history and quality of life, while promoting smart growth and providing an efficient, effective and responsive government.

Proclamation
of the Camden County Board of Commissioners Recognizing the Healthcare Professionals, First Responders and Essential Workers during the Covid19 Pandemic

WHEREAS, the spread of Covid-19 has challenged each of us, reshaping our daily lives in an instant, but it has also highlighted the strength of our community and our ability to support each other through these difficult and trying times; and

WHEREAS, during the Covid-19 pandemic, our Healthcare Professionals, First Responders and Essential Workers have proven themselves to be frontline heroes, exemplifying their strength, tenacity, and bravery proving not all heroes wear capes; and

WHEREAS, the challenges these frontline heroes face, while often having to isolate themselves from their families and loved ones, are immense and unprecedented; and

WHEREAS, we would like to recognize and celebrate all those who risk their lives on a daily basis to care for, protect and serve us every minute of every day during the Covid19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, we honor the devotion and courage these individuals display keeping us safe at home, on the road, and as we go about our daily lives. To their families, we owe an unpayable debt, and to the men and women who carry their mission forward, we owe our unyielding support; and

WHEREAS, it is important that all citizens know and understand the duties, responsibilities, hazards, and sacrifices of all healthcare professionals, first responders and essential workers during this time; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we do hereby encourage the community to recognize and show the utmost appreciation for all the Doctors, Nurses, Medical Personnel, Deputies and Police Officers, Firefighters, EMT's, Paramedics, 911 Operators, Corrections Officers and all Essential Workers who continue to put the lives of others before themselves especially during these uncertain times.

PROCLAIMED this 2nd day of June 2020,
