“Peaches On My Mind” Camden County’s Exhibition of Local Flavor A Huge Success KEY INGREDIENTS: AMERICA BY FOOD - THE GEORGIA TOUR

Woodbine, GA – June 3, 2009: On Friday, May 29, 2009, Camden County Government participated in the Key Ingredients: America by Food traveling exhibition by hosting “Peaches on My Mind” Camden County’s Exhibition of Local Flavor. The event was held from 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM, at the Satilla Waterfront Park in Woodbine. Over 30 peach-themed recipes that were entered into the contest were prepared for the judges and all those who attended to taste. The four judges were David L. Rainer, Chair, Board of County Commissioners; Annette Thomas, County Employee; David Keating, JDA Director; and Randy Horne of K-Bay 106.3. Winners of the three recipe categories are:

Best Drink – “Georgia Peach Punch” prepared by Kelly Wagner

Best Appetizer – “Spicy Peach Shrimp Cocktail” prepared by Kevin Berry, Seagle’s Café

The winners received a special "peach" themed gift basket and ribbon, and were also recognized with a certificate at the Board of County Commissioners meeting on Tuesday, June 2nd. Each of the winning recipes were prepared and brought to the Board meeting for the citizens to sample. Kevin Berry, Chef and Manager of Seagle's Café stated, "I created a seasonally inspired recipe to complement our traditional seafood fare. I wanted to submit an appetizer that showcased the coastal flavors we offer our guests at Seagle's Cafe." The winners will also be recognized in the next Community Outreach newsletter as well as the 2009 Annual Report and other various county publications.

The Key Ingredients - America by Food tour has been made possible through the Georgia Humanities Council along with the Smithsonian Institute. "The Camden County Communications Committee was very excited to be a part of this nationally recognized event. It gave us the opportunity to showcase Camden County's food culture and spotlight some of the local talent found right here in Camden County," said Staci Bowick, Chair of the Communications Committee.
