New Ambulances Join Camden County Fire Rescue

WOODBINE, Ga. – April 27, 2021 – Camden County Fire Rescue (CCFR) recently received two Custom AEV Type 1 Units. The purchases were approved by the Camden County Board of Commissioners in August 2020 and are the first two of five total new ambulances included in SPLOST VIII.

“The commitment made by the Board of Commissioners to upgrade our ambulance fleet helps us better serve the citizens and visitors of Camden County,” said Camden County Fire Rescue Chief Terry Smith. “We are thankful for their continued support of Camden County Fire Rescue through SPLOST funding.”

Life Squad 17 and Life Squad 11

These new ambulances are part of the over $2.6 million in new buildings, equipment, and apparatus since 2017. During this time, Camden County Fire Rescue has added one (1) new tanker truck, three (3) new engines, one (1) new firehouse, and nearly $500,000 in equipment and tools. The cost of Life Squad 11 and Life Squad 17 total over $499,000.

Camden County voters approved the Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax (SPLOST) VIII in March 2019. This one-cent sales tax is paid by all residents and visitors that purchase goods in
