“Showcase Camden County” Photo Contest – 2010 Winners Announced

Woodbine, GA – December 22, 2010: On Tuesday, December 14, 2010 at the regular scheduled Board of County Commissioners meeting, the winners of this year’s “Showcase Camden County” photo contest were announced. The photo contest calls for amateur and/or professional photographers to submit their best photos of Camden County, Georgia. This year, a total of 117 entries were submitted from 27 contestants. The contest was once again a huge success!

The winners are as follows: Overall winner and Landscape category winner – John Fleck, “Sunrise on St. Mary’s River”; Nature/Wildlife and Architecture categories winner– Melissa Carter, “Tree Roots in Crooked River State Park” and “Stone Wall”; and Festivals/Special Events winner – Cheryl Conner, “Senior’s Practice Their Wave.”

The winning photographs, along with all of the photos submitted, are currently on display upstairs at the Government Services Complex and can also be found on the County's website. Various photos will be used by the Board of County Commissioners in its ongoing promotions and publications. On behalf of the Board of County Commissioners, congratulations to the winners and we extend our praise to all the contestants who entered the contest! Also, we would like to thank all of our judges, Greg Lockhart, Barbara Ryan, and Kathy Mitchell, for helping us narrow down such great photos!

The next "Showcase Camden County" photo contest will launch January 3, 2011. The contest rules and categories have been amended to allow entries to be classified in the following categories: Landscape, People,
