Local Leaders Attend Roundtable Breakfast

Woodbine, Ga. - (June 23, 2014) An Elected Officials Roundtable Breakfast was held Friday, June 20, 2014 from 7:30 AM - 9:00 AM at the Public Service Authority, Community Room, located at 1050 Wildcat Drive, Kingsland. Elected officials (or their representative) from the Board of County Commissioners, the City of St. Marys, the City of Kingsland, the City of Woodbine and the Camden County Board of Education attended.

Camden County Fire Chief and local Emergency Management Agency (EMA) Director Mark Crews gave a short presentation about the role and responsibilities of EMA and elected officials in the event of an emergency. In addition, Chief Crews fielded a number of questions ranging from the widening of Highway 40 to credentialing local leaders during an emergency event.

This is the second Roundtable Breakfast to be held. The regular gatherings were the idea of BOCC Chairman Jimmy Starline to promote cooperation and communication between all of Camden County's elected officials.
