Bryan-Lang Historical Archives Receives Award

WOODBINE, GEORGIA – September

23, 2015 – The Board of County Commissioners would like to congratulate Judy Buchanan, Director and Archivist of the Bryan-Lang Historical Archives for receiving the 2015 “Award for Excellence in the Educational Use of Historical Records.” The Georgia Historical Records Advisory Council (GHRAC) will present Mrs. Buchanan with the award at the Archives Award Ceremony held October 28, 2015 in Morrow, Georgia to honor her outstanding efforts.

GHRAC established the Archives Awards Program in 2003 to recognize exceptional efforts in archives and records programs in Georgia. The GHRAC supports efforts to improve the condition of records statewide and to promote the educational use of Georgia’s documentary heritage.

Mrs. Buchanan came to work for the Bryan-Lang Historical Archives in January 2007 as the Assistant Archivist. She has been involved in historic preservation and research for more than thirty-five years. The Board of Commissioners along with the Bryan-Lang Historical Board applaud Mrs. Buchanan’s dedication to preserving the past in order to educate our future.
