FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Camden County Lifts Burn Ban

WOODBINE, GEORGIA – May 31, 2017 – The Fire Chiefs of Camden County (Camden County Fire Chief, Kingsland Fire Chief, and St. Marys Fire Chief) have lifted the County-wide burn ban that has been in place since May 8th, 2017. We would like to give a special thanks to the community for your cooperation during this time.

In addition, all 3 Fire Chiefs would like to extend their sincerest appreciation to the community for the outpouring of donations received during this time of need for Charlton County. We are thankful for your support to the many firefighters and crews working extremely hard to control the massive blaze in our neighboring county.

About Camden County: Located in the extreme southeast corner of Georgia, Camden County truly is “Georgia’s Coastal Community of Choice.” Originally formed in 1777, Camden County is best known for its rich history, natural scenic beauty and Southern hospitality. Our vision is helping to make this the best place to live by preserving and enhancing the history and quality of life, while promoting smart growth and providing an efficient, effective and responsive government.
