TRAVEL ADVISORY

No Driver Services in Camden County

WOODBINE, GEORGIA — September 12, 2017 — Camden County Emergency Management Officials are requesting that motorists traveling along I-95 do not stop in Camden County because there are no driver services available due to Hurricane Irma.

There is no electricity, water, and sewer services, coupled with no fuel supply or accommodations available to serve the public. Officials urge all drivers to plan their trips with the knowledge that Camden County will not be able to fulfil their needs.

As services are recovered and restored, we look forward to once again welcoming visitors to our community in the future.

About Camden County: Located in the extreme southeast corner of Georgia, Camden County truly is “Georgia’s Coastal Community of Choice.” Originally formed in 1777, Camden County is best known for its rich history, natural scenic beauty and Southern hospitality. Our vision is helping to make this the best place to live by preserving and enhancing the history and quality of life, while promoting smart growth and providing an efficient, effective and responsive government.
